Awareness Research Exchange Evaluation Form

After your visit, a condition for having your costs reimbursed is to complete this form and return to j.willies@napier.ac.uk no later than six weeks after you return home.

1. Describe your visit in a short summary paragraph: (who you visited, area of collaboration, any talks you gave etc)

2. What were the cross-disciplinary aspects of the visit?

3. What were the main achievements and outcomes of this exchange?

4. How will collaborations continue? Are publications anticipated?

5. What significance did Awareness funding make to this exchange?

6. Any other comments or suggestions?

7. Attach a short article (800-1200 words) suitable for reading by a general audience describing your visit and its benefits. This will be posted on the Awareness website. Feel free to include any photographs taken on your exchange, or any references.

8. Please ensure that Awareness support is acknowledged in any publication arising from the visit, described as “Awareness is a Future and Emerging Technologies Proactive Initiative funded by the European Commission under FP7 focusing on self-awareness in autonomic systems”

As soon as this form and the short article are received, a reimbursement claim form for your costs will be sent to you and should complete and return this together with original receipts. Funds will be remitted in your preferred currency, and sent by bank transfer.

All claims and correspondence can be sent to:
